

PARKER COUNTY EMERGENCY SERVICES DISTRICT NO. 8
PRELIMINARY TAXPAYER IMPACT STATEMENT

STATE OF TEXAS §
 §
COUNTY OF PARKER §

Parker County Emergency Services District No. 8 (“District”) acknowledges the requirements of Sec. 551.043, Texas Government Code, to prepare a Taxpayer Impact Statement when adopting its budget. Therefore, this is the current Taxpayer Impact Statement for the District until further information is provided by the Parker County Central Appraisal District and Tax Assessor-Collector to complete this document, based on available information. The District has posted its proposed budget on its website, www.parkercountyesd8.org.

The District has not “adopted” its budget at this time, and this Notice informs the District’s taxpayers of the following based on current information:

2025 Median Taxable Value: $$248,410.00 \times $0.10 \text{ per } $100.00 \text{ valuation} = \248.41

2026 Median Taxable Value: $$264,584.00 \times $0.10 \text{ per } $100 \text{ valuation} = \264.58

Again, the District has not adopted a budget per Sec. 551.043, Texas Government Code, and the above numbers are preliminary.

The District’s 2026 No-New-Revenue Tax Rate is $.096753 per $100 valuation, the Voter Approval Rate is $.122762, and its De Minimis Rate is $.148806.
